It is expected that more than twice that number will compete. Those entered are Lieut. Cole, Hickman and Hartney, and Lieuts. Logan, Haynes, Carroll and Johnson. ## DISTRICT FILLS ARMY BARRELS

1920 Appeal of Salvation
Girls Meets Generous
Response.

Today is the third of the Salvation Army's 1920 annual appeal. The public is responding to the appeal and the several hundred girls who are collecting money in small tin barrels report a generous response. The largest collection made in one day was $129.55. This barrel was in charge of Mrs. Ernest Wiggins, of the League of American Pen Women. She was stationed at the corner of Seventeenth and H streets northwest.

Subscription lists have been sent to all police precincts. Director Westlake yesterday addressed a letter to General John J. Pershing, asking him to speak at the mass meeting on the Ellipse Sunday. Three one-act plays will be presented for the benefit of the Salvation Army by the Arts Club on May 26.

COST OF GASOLINE MOVES UP AGAIN

Washington motorists felt the sting of the H. L. C. epidemic this week, following the advance in the price of gasoline by the Standard Oil Company Saturday. "Gas" is now selling at 31 cents retail by the Standard Oil Company, 28½ cents wholesale, an increase of 1 cent a gallon. Advances from New York offices, they say, indicate prices on virtually all oil products will continue to advance.
